InnoVen Capital India Private Limited ("the Company") is committed to grow in a socially and environmentally responsible manner, and as a result the Company strives to contribute to socially responsible activities. The Company's CSR initiative aims at having a long-term sustainable impact on the community.

1. Vision & Objectives

The Company's CSR Vision is to contribute to the social and economic development of the community. The Company's strategy is to integrate its activities in community development, social responsibility and environmental responsibility and encourage each of its employees and business function to include these considerations into its operations.

CSR activities shall be undertaken as projects, programs of activities (either new or ongoing) excluding activities undertaken in pursuance of the normal course of business of the Company.

2. Scope

The CSR Policy (the "Policy") shall be applicable to all CSR initiatives and activities undertaken by the Company and all its employees for the welfare and sustainable development benefit of different segments of the society at large. This Policy is in line with the Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") and the rules made thereunder. The Policy would function as a self-regulating mechanism for the Company's CSR activities and enable adherence to laws, ethical standards and international best practices in this regard. This policy will apply to all projects/programs undertaken as a part of the Company's CSR Activities and will be developed, reviewed and updated by reference to the relevant codes of Corporate Governance and best practices.

3. CSR Committee

The CSR Committee has been formed in line with Section 135 of the Companies Act 2013 (the "Committee"). The Committee which shall consist of two or more directors.

The Committee shall:

- a) formulate and recommend to the Board, a Corporate Social Responsibility Policy which shall indicate the activities to be undertaken by the company in areas or subject, specified in Schedule VII;
- b) recommend the amount of expenditure to be incurred on the activities referred to in clause (a); and
- c) monitor the Corporate Social Responsibility Policy of the company from time to time.
- d) To review CSR projects/initiatives from time to time;
- e) To ensure regulatory compliance from CSR perspective;
- f) To ensure reporting and communication to the relevant stakeholders on the Company's CSR projects/initiatives.
- g) The CSR Committee shall formulate and recommend to the Board, an annual action plan in pursuance of its CSR policy, which shall include the following, namely:-
 - the list of CSR projects or programmes that are approved to be undertaken in areas or subjects specified in Schedule VII of the Act;

- the manner of execution of such projects or programmes as specified in sub-rule (1) of rule 4;
- the modalities of utilisation of funds and implementation schedules for the projects or programmes;
- monitoring and reporting mechanism for the projects or programmes; and
- details of need and impact assessment, if any, for the projects undertaken by the company;

The Board may alter such plan at any time during the financial year, as per the recommendation of its CSR Committee, based on the reasonable justification to that effect.

The Committee will report to the Company's Board of Directors.

4. CSR Budget & Expenditure

4.1. Budget

The annual budget for the Company's CSR initiative shall be reviewed by the CSR Committee and recommended to the Board. The allocation of funds to specific projects or initiatives within the major heads may be decided by the Committee. All projects undertaken by the Company will be approved/ratified by the Committee.

4.2. Expenditure

The Company shall spend, in every financial year, at least two percent of the average net profits of the Company made during the three immediately preceding financial years, pursuant to this Policy.

Note: "net profit" shall not include such sums as may be prescribed, and shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of Section 198 of the Companies Act, 2018.

If the Company fails to spend such amount, the Board shall, in its report, specify the reasons for not spending the amount and, unless the unspent amount relates to any ongoing project, transfer such unspent amount to a Fund specified in Schedule VII, within a period of six months of the expiry of the financial year.

If the Company spends an amount in excess of requirement provided under sub-section (5) of section 135, such excess amount may be set off against the requirement to spend under sub-section (5) of section 135 up to immediate succeeding three financial years subject to the conditions that –

1. the excess amount available for set off shall not include the surplus arising out of the CSR activities, if any, in pursuance of sub-rule (2) of this rule.
2. the Board of the company shall pass a resolution to that effect.

Any amount remaining unspent pursuant to any ongoing project undertaken by a Company, shall be transferred by the Company within a period of thirty days from the end of the financial year to a special account to be opened by the Company in that behalf for that financial year in any scheduled bank to be called the Unspent Corporate Social Responsibility Account, and such amount shall be spent by the Company in pursuance of its obligation towards the Corporate Social Responsibility Policy within a period of three financial years from the date of such transfer, failing which, the Company shall transfer the same to a Fund specified in Schedule VII, within a period of thirty days from the date of completion of the third financial year

4.3. Treatment of Surpluses

Any surplus generated from CSR projects undertaken by the Company will be tracked and rechanneled into the Company's CSR corpus. The total amount rechanneled in such manner will be counted while calculating the total amount spent on CSR projects in that year. Further, the surplus arising out of the CSR projects or programs or activities shall not form part of the business profit of a company.
